By Starlight

To deny true originality to the poet who created Werther, while fresh from his experience in Wetzlar - who wrote Goetz, while yet full of enthusiasm from the reading of the life of the old knight, with an independence of plan and treatment that leaves the old story behind like the shadow of a giant - is, to say the least, a very bold act. That's the only thing that stopped this book from getting 5 stars from me.
